

Forum on:

The impact of War in Sudan on Women

16 April from 5-7 pm

Located in London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine,
Keppel Street, London, WC1E 7HT.

This event is jointly hosted by:

- The Health and Humanitarian Crisis Centre & Gender Violence Health Centre
- Sudanese Women in the Diaspora for Ending the War
- Sudan Civil and Humanitarian Emergencies Room (London)

For Registration and Information please contact:
osama3rman@gmail.com

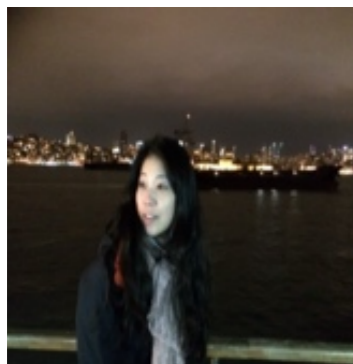

Speakers

Dr Lutz Oette

Professor of International Human Rights Law at SOAS, University of London, and co-director of the SOAS Centre for Human Rights Law.

Eujine Byun

The UNHCR's (The UN Refugee Agency) Global Spokesperson.

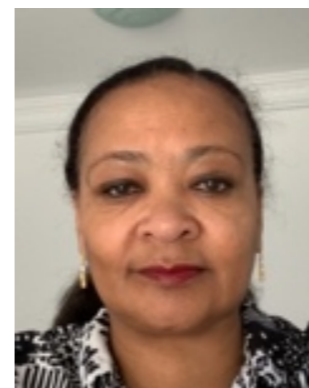

Akiko Sakue

Gender-based Violence (GBV) specialist at United Nations Population Fund

Ali Abdel Latif

Secretary of Planning, Research and Training with Sudan Peoples' Liberation Movement- Revolutionary Democratic Current (SPLM-RDC)

Dr Ameena Alrasheed

Former Assistant Professor at the UN mandated University for Peace and Senior Gender adviser for the UN.

Shaza Ahmed Kheir

Executive Director for Nada Elazher Organization for Disaster Prevention and Sustainable Development. (NADA)

Fathiaa Abdalla

Leader in the Global Humanitarian Sector and held Senior positions in various UN regional operations.

Dr Salwa Ahmed

Manager and practice educator for nearly two decades, former lecturer and manager at Children services.